Dear Margaret

My apologies to you and the whole club on causing such disruption on the night of your competition.

When I got there I told my Partner that we were going to win it but unfortunately, as you know, instead I stopped the entire works.

My particular thanks to yourself, Liz, Mary, Deirdre and Sue for taking care of me.

Yours,

Betty

Joe - never forget you were there, but Lail lost your name. Then she typed this for me - many thanks - I needed your strong right arm!! J.
