

BASIC DEFENCE

Four years ago we presented four seminars on the basics of defensive play. These were well received and several people asked whether the seminars could be repeated. After testing the waters and getting a very positive response, the answer is yes.

The seminars will take place on four Tuesday evenings commencing at 7pm and running until about 10pm.

Tuesday 8 th March	: Third Hand Play
Tuesday 22 nd March	: Leads Part 1
Tuesday 29 th March	: Leads Part 2
Tuesday 12 th April	: Second and Fourth Hand Play

The Basic Defence seminars are designed to refresh your memory and top-up your skills in this most important aspect of the game.

Each seminar consists of a PowerPoint presentation interspersed with set hands to illustrate the points raised, and finishes with practice play as time allows. Your host and presenter will be John Wootton.

The PowerPoint presentation of the seminars has been updated and improved and even if you attended the last course a refresher should be very worthwhile.

The four seminar package costs £25, individual seminars are £8. The four sessions will be made available to non-members at a cost of £32, with individual seminars at £10, so you can enrol non-member friends if you wish. Cheques should be made payable to Merseyside Bridge Centre.

To book your place on the course, or for more details, please contact Mike Greatbatch or admin@merseybridge.org.uk. To ensure your place please book early, spaces are limited.
