

LONDON LEAGUE

How do you like playing teams?

The London League for teams of four to eight players has run since the beginning of time, with essentially the same fifteen teams making up the three divisions. I'm now hoping to be able to add a few teams and perhaps another division.

It runs from October until May, with dates being agreed by the two captains, and matches played either in a bridge club or at home. Depending on numbers, each team typically has to play five 24-board matches. Entry fee is a modest £20 and there're cash prizes to the division winners.

If you're interested, please send me a text, WhatsApp or email, and I'd be more than happy to answer any questions.

Entries should ideally be received before Sept 18, but it'll probably be extended this year with me taking over the organisation.
