

Spike Lay

2017 Daytona Regional

FREE

11 am to 1 pm on

2017

SPIKE LAY, aka MISTER BRIDGE, a well-known bridge personality will be speaking at the 2017 DAYTONA REGIONAL.

Spike's Class: Competitive bidding

When your side opens and the opponents interfere, Spike says: "MAKE THEM PAY." This class will show you how to use the opponents interference to your advantage

Everyone is welcome, especially intermediate and advancing players.

Spike's preferred method of teaching is using examples and class participation.

As I've said many times "bidding is just talking across the table" within the rules of bridge. But you must have a working knowledge of the "language".

I will avoid making the presentation too theoretical, and will strive to define a few principles and illustrate their application in real bidding situations. A handout will illustrate and reinforce the principles we discuss.
