Daphne Thorburn was a very fine player at the Barnstaple Club in the seventies and early eighties. She was in the teams which won the League in 1971, 84 & 85. and won the Championship Pairs in 1973 & 82. She fell and died shortly after one club night in 1985. The Daphne Torburn Trophy has been competed for every year in her memory since her death.

The Amos Bridgman Salver recognises an outstanding contribution over 35 years to bridge in North Devon. For many years Amos as chairman was the driving force within the club. Members will remember his charm and his warm welcome to all, as well his tireless efforts in promoting the game and including everyone who wanted to play. We owe him much.
