

Question 1 Who takes which role?

If you are North, who is your partner?

If North is Declarer, what role does South take?

What role does East take?

Who will lead the first card?

Question 2 Winning Tricks: Leading the next Trick

Each diagram shows a single trick.

For each one, work out which pair has won?

And who will lead the next trick?

(Make sure you consider what the contract is, and who will lead the first card.)

2.1 Contract is NO TRUMPS

North

West (Lead)

East

South

Which Pair won the Trick?

Which Player will lead the first card to the next trick?

2.2 Contract is NO TRUMPS

North

West (Lead)

East

South

Which Pair won the Trick?

Which Player will lead the first card to the next trick?

2.3 Hearts are TRUMPS

North

West (Lead)

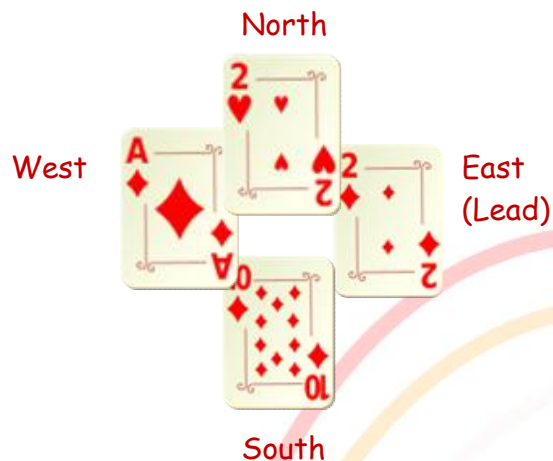

East

South

Which Pair won the Trick?

Which Player will lead the first card to the next trick?

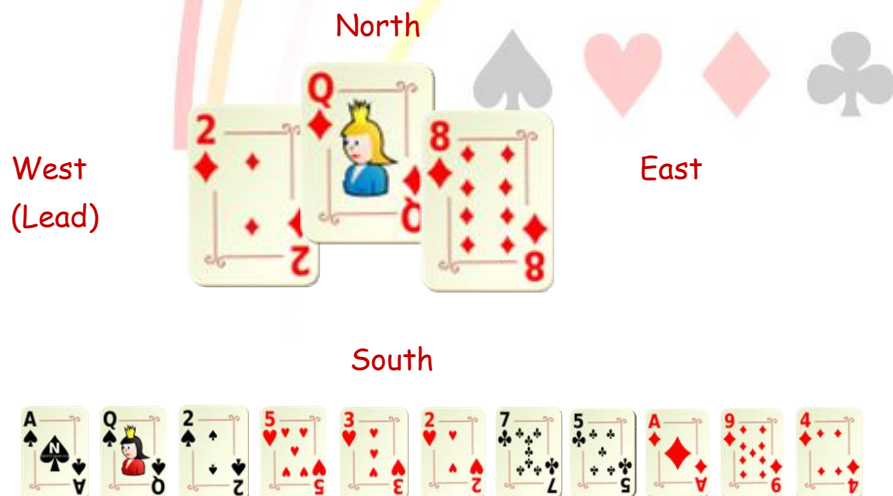

2.4 Hearts are TRUMPS

Which Pair won the Trick?

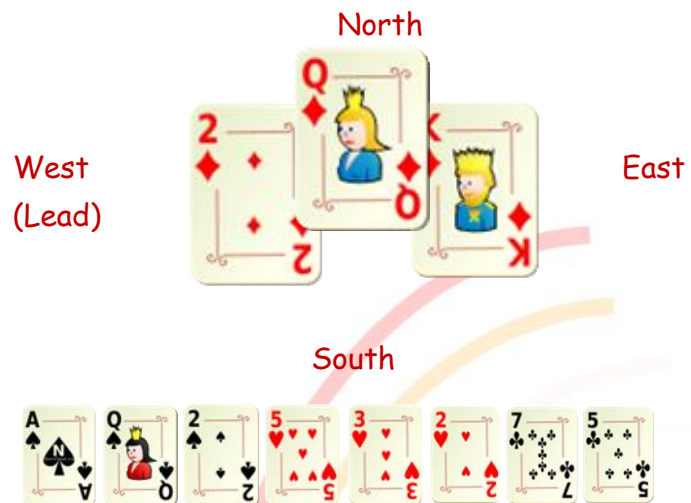

Which Player will lead the first card to the next trick?

Question 3 Choosing which card to play

For each of these, imagine you are South. West has led and North and East have played the cards shown. You have the cards listed in your hand. Which card should you play?

3.1 Contract is No Trumps

3.2 Hearts are Trumps

3. Contract is NO TRUMPS

