Thirteen tables contested the first quarter club championship with 5 pairs having an almost equal shot going into the last two boards. It ended a tie! Ken Fasching/Brian Lipscomb, Pat and Bob Webb.

The Thursday Afternoon 0-500 game asked to be a part of the Unit Stac and hold a open session in January. Some thought "Oh the big guys are going to eat us alive." Well it didn't quite happen that way. In an 8 table game, Lou Riddle and Missy Day came up with 69.64%. This was not just a good game against the usual crowd. Their field included pairs Neuffer/Levinson, Fasching/Edwards and Lauterbach/Henry. They were 3rd overall in the unit and upheld the honor of Thursday afternoon within the CBC and the Columbia Club's within the Unit 160. Nice game, ladies.

Time to clean out some drawers. That box of 144 golf pencils I picked up for the GNT event ran the club $6.50. Those long number 2's with erasers that we run through 3-4 dozen every two weeks cost considerably more. Look through your cubbyholes and desks and dig out those that migrated home with you. Toss them in purse or car and bring 'em on in. Let's fill up our pencil box again.

We missed it somewhere, but sometime between the fall tournament and the end of the year, Kevin Bathurst became a Gold Life Master. Nice guy, lots of talent-pretty good combo.

Our Newest Regional Master is now Brent Holcomb.

Congratulations to our newest Sectional Masters, Leonard Bifano, Carol Brooks, Lech Mason and Francis Kovach.

Welcome, Junior Masters, Renee Bergeron, Dozier Shaw and Celia Saylor.

To be really good at gossip, one needs a keen sense of rumor.

The first round of GNT qualification at CBC on was Saturday January 24th. Special congratulations to B.J.'s squad-finished fourth but won 6 matches. Thanks to Rosa Shaw and Dodi Defiori for great hospitality. They didn't play, but made the day very enjoyable for all of us who did.
