

Tricks & Treats

For Members of the Columbia Bridge Club

The Birthday Party for December was a Club Championship hosted by Ginny Robertson with the able assistance of Genet Horning, Leck Mason and Frazer McCrory. Fourteen tables were in play for the benefit of our local charity which is yet to be decided by our Board of Directors. Ellie Hack, bidding for another points championship, made her case with partner Butch Maybin.

Spotlight event for January is the club qualifying round of the Grand National Teams scheduled for two sessions on Saturday January 29th. Starting time is 10:00 AM ending about 6:30 Bring your own sandwich for in between sessions. We'll have chips, soda and desert. If you have your team, let one of the GNT people know-Dodi DeFiori, Rosa Shaw, Irma Murray, and Brent Holcomb. Still only $44 per team. Anyone playing in nearby clubs, Aiken, Batesburg, Camden, Augusta-get some flyers from Dodi to go with.

We got an enthusiastic reaction to the Individual game during the Month of November. We'll do another one on Thursday, January 20th.

There will be no game at the club Saturday January 14 because of the Tournament in Batesburg.

Our Christmas Party: Wasn't that great? It doesn't just happen-a lot of work went into it starting with our organizing committee, Brent Holcomb, Elaine Wade and Sybil Pratt. Decorations and the tree (Firs by Harold Moore) trimming by Jan Mandeville (bulletin boards), DaMaris Rorie, Henry Momand and others. Our centerpiece, Lou Riddle and cooking-the director-you had a lot of people go a long ways to make this a very nice event for you. A happy and prosperous New Year of 2005 to all!!!

Welcome to our new Jr. Master, Morris Mitchell.
Congratulations to new Club Master, David Bykowski,

A couple of interesting Web sites courtesy of Ed Young. Mike Lawrence, my candidate for all-time greatest, has a daily bidding and a daily playing problem at www.bridgeclues.com. He provides commentary on both. He also presents one of his flash cards each day. Excellent site. Another informative site is Mid-Atlantic Bridge Conference at www.mabcbridge.org. (Note the 'org')

Couple notes from Augusta: The club did not have a Qualifier for Pittsburgh in the NAP. However, Ken Fasching had a good weekend. Ken won the Friday night game with Harold Moore, the Saturday morning game with Joyce Lauterbach and fifth overall in the evening with Joyce. Wayne Hollingsworth finished 5th in the flight A. Bob Woodham and Mike Charles of Irmo finished 3rd and qualified for Pittsburgh in the C Flight. Alice Moore/John Mac Gregor were sixth overall in the NAP B flight. Leonard Bifano and Jim Chianelli were first in C in the Saturday afternoon event. Hap Neuffer/Lukasz Lebioda were an undefeated 2nd in the Sunday Swiss team and John Memory and DaMaris Rorie were 3rd in the B Swiss.

Talk is cheap because the supply vastly exceeds the demand.

A positive attitude won't solve all your problems, but it annoys enough people to be worth the effort

Flight B and C Players: There will be a one-session Qualifying event for Grand National Teams on Friday, January 21, 2004 at George Nichols game. For details call George at 788-4517.

0-500 Players, you will want to take advantage of lessons before the Wednesday night games by Hap Neuffer. He puts in a couple pre-dealt hands pertaining to the lesson for discussion after the game.
