

Tricks & Treats

For Members of the Columbia Bridge Club

(also available at www.cbcbbridge.com expanded version)

July Fourth is a holiday. But I don't see why we can't play-I'll direct-we'll make it an over/under OPEN game. You can have two players under 750 but not two over. Everyone bring something light to snack on and let's play. I don't know how many can come-but game time is Noon.

Our birthday party in June. Good time had by all, but best time by Hap Neuffer and Betty Warren and the Webbs. Our July Birthday Party will be July 1. Volunteer to bring a cake?

The club would like to thank its best patrons of the last year. It seems that there is a lot more interest in playing as 74 was in tenth place last year. Attendance on Wednesday mornings is up and the Monday night and Saturday afternoons are very good mixers for the club. We would also congratulate the winner of the Centurion award Janice Ripley who played many open games.

We have a library-we have some books, we will be adding others. (many others we would like returned-please????) Mary Bostick has catalogued the one we have-if you borrow one-there is a slip to fill out and leave with the director-box on the front desk. Read, enjoy for up to 3 weeks and return so that others may enjoy.

You can read an expanded version of this newsletter on line at www.cbcbridge.com. (this month the game results usually seen on page two) Pics from the anniversary party are also available there. Anyone who wants to just get their calendar and Tricks and Treats in the On-line version, let me know and I will take you off the mailing list.

Good food and our thanks to Bill Rorie Jr. for handling the mixology. Inspirational invocation given by Brent Holcomb who had the misfortune of being sideswiped on the road to the NAP in Batesburg the previous night.
