

TRICKS AND TREATS

FOR MEMBERS OF THE COLUMBIA DUPLICATE BRIDGE CLUB

Our Birthday party for June was an NAP qualifying event. Tough hands kept the field bunched right up to the last result. Chris and Lee pull out a tough one on the last round.

There will be NO GAME at the club on Thursday evening July 4. The game is on for the afternoon though. Likewise, no games at the club during the tournament Thursday July 11-14.

Our Sectional Tournament first event starts 1:30 Thursday July 11 with Stratified and 299'er pairs. We'll be setting up starting at 11:00 Thursday morning-anyone who can help please come. Featured events besides several sessions of stratified pairs will be the Saturday evening Swiss starting at 7:00, The bracketed KO teams starting Friday evening at 7:00 and the compact KO teams that start at 9:30 Friday morning. The Sunday Swiss will start at 10:00 and the stratification will be by the average number of Master points held by the team. A 299'er Swiss will be run at the same time. Free breakfast and lunch for all players Friday-Sunday. See you there!

Due to the July 4 holiday and the Sectional, there will only be one 8 is enough team game in July. It will be held on Thursday July 18 at 7:00. Our Individual game will be held on Thursday, July 25 at 7:00.

The Board has voted to let students play at reduced rates. This covers all students from Grad Students on down. Policy to go into effect July 1. Teaching bridge in schools goes into effect (we hope) with the Fall semester.

Final Standings for the 2012-2013 club races for just masterpoints won at the club. The complete standings for each category are available at the club web site. Numbers next to the various trophies are the number of points or other criteria for eligibility on June 1, 2012. New races started June 1, 2013 and the first update on those races are also available.
