Future Life Master Tournament 2022

Our club hosted the Future Life Master tournament and what an event! This was our first face to face tournament since COVID. We had 20.5 table on Friday and 23.5 tables on Saturday for a combined total of 44 tables of bridge. We are down pre COVID about 40% but that's been consistent with all District 7 tournaments since reopening face to face. Attending were players from Pawley's Island, Charlotte, Charleston, and Virginia! Big shout out to our local players who supported the tournament.

SO many people made this a success: Shelby King, Karen Hansel, and Francis McMeekin were stellar with their organizational skills heading the hospitality committee. Lee Webb handled the administrative aspects of sanctions, fliers, communication with ACBL, etc. Sally McCardle handled partnerships. Francis McMeekin along with Karen Hansel, Mary Townhill, Judy Rockwell, Hansa Patel did an outstanding job with the Friday lunch, they did not disappoint with tremendous compliments from everyone. Lunch on Saturday was a fajita bar catered from Scotty's and it was fresh and plenty. Deviled eggs by Frances Robinson and Sylvia White, cakes and desserts by many club members, and help with serving and clean up by Bernetha Henry and Sue Hopke. If we have forgotten someone, please know your work and contributions were very appreciated.

The flowers were a special touch! We want to give a big thanks to Francis McMeekin who has a unique talent providing these!

Joel Haywood served as our "off-site" tournament director running the ACBL side for us. Chris Webb handled reporting to the ACBL our financial responsibilities. The directors who gave their time and expertise: Jack Self and Mary Townhill, we give you a big thanks, you did an OUTSTANDING job! Mike Bitonti made the boards and hand records which was a tremendous help. Kathy Kimmerling promoted the tournament on the website and with an email blast to our entire unit. Scott Dunn was our expert speaker on Saturday with words of wisdom on doubles.

The snacks, desserts, breakfast food brought were all testimony to our special club members who are the best! I am sure there are many people we did not personally thank but know your contributions are so appreciated. Our profit was around $1100.00. Great job!
