

Friday Mornings at the Cincy Bridge Center

Starts first Friday in December (12/7) for 8 Fridays 9:30-10:30

Matt Granovetter's Series: "Trick One and Beyond"

Tricks one and two are crucial. They often steer the course of the entire hand in favor of the declarer or defenders. We'll study it from both sides and learn what to think about.

Syllabus

- 1. The opening lead choice; "robot leads" method; clues from the bidding.
- 2. Mental preparation for the defenders upon seeing the dummy
- 3. Declarer's choice of strategy
- 4. Third hand's play or signal; passive or aggressive
- 5. Inferences and hypothesis
- 6. Declarer's advantages; discovery plays, assumptions, concealment
- 7. Defenders strive for clarity
- 8. Dummy strives to remain calm
- 9. Matchpoint goals versus team goals

Cost: $78 for 8 lectures - All materials included.
