

Oxted Duplicate Bridge Club

General Data Protection Regulations (GDPR)

The purpose of the GDPR is to provide a set of standard data protection laws across the EU, making it easier for you to understand how your data is being used and to give you greater control over its use.

How is Oxted Duplicate Bridge Club complying?

Oxted Duplicate Bridge Club is committed to take great care to safeguard the privacy of our members and guests and use your personal data in compliance with the GDPR.

Our legal basis for processing this data is our legitimate interest as a membership organisation.

We use the data for the administration of your membership and the communication of information

If you are content with the information that we hold, how we process it, how we currently contact you, etc, then you do not need to do anything. Unlike other organisations who may have contacted you, due to the club's position as a membership organisation we do not need you to grant consent for your information to be used, and you do not need to reply or complete any forms.

In compliance with the General Data Protection Regulations we have created our Privacy Notice to explain what we collect, how we collect, store and handle your personal data.

We have a privacy notice on our website.

Any queries please contact us via the "contact us" option on the club web site.
