

2017-002

Initial Leads

This one comes from a 199'er who read the first "Byte". Lead before you Write. That gets the play started and gives your partner and declarer more time to study the dummy and to plan their strategy. It also saves time to complete the round! Be sure to lead face down and ask your partner "any questions", to avoid leading out of turn.