

ACE FROM SPACE.

Sound familiar? I have been teaching not to lead an unsupported Ace. So what did I do today? I led one! I had a reason...A 6 card suit and I hoped my partner was short. Silly me. Of course the Declarer was void. So he trumped my Ace. Then he went to dummy and threw off 2 losers on the K and Q!!! Did we get a bad score? Of course. So do what I say, not what I do.
