

Once you turn your card face down during the play, you may not ask opponents to show you their cards. So, take your time before turning your card over.