

Bridge for beginners

Learn to play Bridge in a fun, friendly environment.

My name is Mike Baker and I am looking to begin a class for new starters to bridge on Wednesday evenings, commencing on the 7th September 2016. It will be a chance for new players to the game to build up basic bridge playing skills and for individuals who have played a bit of bridge to go over their bidding system. It will also be a chance to learn various card play techniques with the emphasis on playing hands, from session one. No previous experience of playing card games is necessary - just a willingness to try something new!

The sessions will run from 7pm to 9pm (or a little later), with a mid-session break (tea, coffee and biscuits will be available).

And the good news is...

The cost will be a total of £40 for the first 10 weeks tuition*.

Sessions will take place just a couple of miles outside Swindon, at the Hinton Parva Village Hall, SN4 0DJ. EBU accredited teaching, using EBU recommended materials.

* This may rise to £5 per lesson (£50 for each subsequent set of 10 lessons) subject to numbers.
