PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Ups and Downs

by Bill Schreiber, ALACBU President

Well, here it is the middle of February and temperatures are all over the place from near freezing at night to the 80s during the day. I begin this column this way to compare my presidency to the ups and downs of the weather. As I try to reflect on my 3½ years as president, there have been positives and there have been negatives. Among the positives is that ALACBU is back on solid financial footing. We have increasingly good attendance (tables per day) at our summer Bridge Week tournament which is making money, as opposed to the tournaments that were held in Industry in the past. The Board of Directors has been very supportive in virtually all of the things that I have brought to the table.

I shall single out those individuals with special thanks in my final column, which will be available July 1. Speaking of the Board of Directors— West Los Angeles, Long Beach, Pomona, Antelope Valley, South Bay and Glendale have been at all of our meetings while Downey, Glendale and San Fernando Valley come to few, if any meetings. I would suggest that at Unit Board Meetings, representatives are chosen to

Have Any Suggestions for ACBLScore?

by Rand Pinsky, District Director

A few years ago the National Board created a Technology Committee. One of the charges to this committee was to review ACBLScore and to suggest changes to it to make it more user friendly. ACBLScore is more than 20 years old, first written in DOS and later adopted to a Windows-based program. The committee has recently been working with a software firm in the Memphis area to update this program.

The people on this committee have a general idea of what they want to accomplish. However, I believe that we need to have input from the people who use ACBLScore on a daily basis, namely our club owners and club directors. Therefore, I am asking all of our District 23 club owners and directors to send me an email with your suggestions as to what features you would like to have in the new ACBLScore and what features you would want eliminated. My email address is pinsky4bridge@earthlink.net. I would like you to provide to me any idea that would make the use of the program that much user friendly. I assure you that any idea I receive I will forward to the committee for their discussion.

LOUISVILLE NABC

In a few days Kathy and I leave for Louisville. Even though the tournament does not begin until March 10, I have to be there for our meetings that begin before that. The two most interesting motions are:

1. Establishing a mastepoint policy for online play as well as robot tournaments. I have previously written an article about this and have received

Two of the four teams that will represent our district this summer in Toronto have won their spots by finishing first in their flights of the Grand National Teams. The Open flight winners are Mitch Dunitz, Roger Lee, Ed Davis, and John Swanson. Flight B winners are Bruce Altschuler, Bud Bates, Zalman Perelman, and Ryan Wessels. These two contests took place the weekend of February 12.

Two more teams will win the right to go to Toronto with a subsidy from our district. Flight A, for players with less than 5,000 masterpoints, and Flight C, for non life masters with less than 500 masterpoints, will take place March 5-6. Entries are accepted up until game time at the Barrington Bridge Club— March 5 at 10:00 a.m. Teams must consist of four, five, or six players. Complete conditions of contest are available on our district website (www.acbldistrict23.org). If you have questions you can call Howard Einberg (310-475-9784) or Bill Wickham (310-234-3238). This event is the easiest way to win lots of gold points without traveling far from home.

attend the meetings on Saturday nights, usually held after the playing sessions at our regional tournaments. Three Saturday nights is not a big commitment.

Tough decisions had to be made during my tenure, especially with regard to discontinuing the print version of the Southern California Bridge News. Printing and mailing costs, though, were driving the district towards bankruptcy. But we have recovered. I would seriously doubt that we could ever go back to a print version, though I am sure that a vast majority of our members would like that.

The last I heard was that attendance at our district's sponsored Regional-At-Sea had 130 commitments. This translates to $13,000 revenue for the district. Special thanks to the WLA Unit for allowing us to cross over into their sectional time with this regional.

Bridge Week 2011 at the Pasadena Hilton is fast approaching with its premier events: the 4-day Marshall Miles on July 2-3 and our GREEN-POINTS event, the third Calcutta on Friday night, July 1.

Regionals at the Marina del Rey Hotel are scheduled for October 2011 and February 2012.

As far as the Grand National Teams are concerned, the winning Open Flight Team is: Roger Lee, Mitch Dunitz, John Swanson, and Ed Davis and the winning B flight Team is: Bruce Altschuler, Marel Bates, Ryan Wessels, and Zalman Perelman. I wish both teams good luck in Louisville. Flights A and C representatives will be determined in March and I will report on them next month.

Around the Units in District 23

Antelope Valley by Brad Ward

Many of you are now aware that former world champion John Swanson calls Lancaster, CA his new home. We are so happy to welcome John here and are pleased to see that his skills are still razor sharp (see the District 23 Grand National Team Competition report). Do some of you remember the old days 40 years ago when there were city vs.city competitions within each unit? Lancaster is claiming seeding rights for the next generation of this competition.

This unit is very fortunate to have many good people that love to play bridge. The Valencia Club offers great competition on Tuesday nights with frequent 10-12 table games. Under the steady hands of Rand Pinsky and Kathy Swaine, this game is a proven delight. On Thursday mornings, Rita Vannatter has developed a wonderful game in Castaic that is proving to be more and more popular. The games at the Lancaster Bridge Club offer an opportunity for players of all levels to play several times a week. The results from the past four+ weeks of games at each venue are as follows: IN VALENCIA we see that Donna Davidson and Freddie Straus have won twice as has Arif Shah and John Langer and Ted Maki and George MacDonald. Paul Gill & Roy Ladd are the C-level hotshots with two big wins as well. The usual suspects show up frequently in the money, Barbara and Tom Jones, Rand Pinsky and Kathy Swaine (with different partners as well as together), Kristi Kubo, Rita Vannatter, Peggy Fleming, Gary Grey and Hugh Bartlett, Marlene Warren Gasper and Dave Gasper, Betty Peavy and Everett Dehn, Elaine Moore and Tom Shudic, Paul Mostman and Bruce Bloch and the amazing Ruth Baker and Jerry Burrill.

The friendly CASTAIC club has seen a lot of really close finishes this past month with Carol Trendera and Jackie Moor, Hugh Bartlett and Paula Olivares, Jerry Burrill and Ruth Baker and Fabian Fang and Everett Dehn all claiming narrow victories. Paul Gill, Roy Ladd, Marguerite Pinkers, Bill Brodek, Paul Mostman, Kathy Swaine, Peggy Fleming, Rita Vannatter, Vibeke Gilbreath, Basant Shah, Lemonte Johnson and many others make this a club whose results are always hotly contested.

The LANCASTER club has seen another solid performance from its 100+ year old jewel, Ms. Dorrie Deston. Dorrie and Hal Underwood finished third in the very tough 5-table Tuesday afternoon game a couple of weeks ago. Bob Hart, Ron & Sandi Oest, Mary Stauf and Henry Roediger, Doris Thompson and Lola Messiha all notched wins this past month. Marlene Warren Gasper, Dave Gasper, Willo Jean Phillips and Brad Ward all secured multiple wins this past month with Marlene and Brad and Willo and Brad each falling a tiny bit short of a 70% game. Every game is hotly contested in this club with great new players like Sharry Vida and Beth Morrin making life tough for the old veterans.

If you want to score well you have to learn how to handle the tough hands. What do you do with this one? ♠A ♥AJx ♦KQ109xx ♣Jxx. You open one diamond, opponents pass throughout, partner bids 1♠, you bid 2♦ and then partner bids 2♥. The winning bid at the table was 3♣ getting the partnership to a thin, but cold, 3NT.

Army Air Corps in WWII, also continued his bridge avocation upon retirement from Challenge Creamery Credit Union as general manager. He was a contender at the Regency club into his late 80s when he moved up to Cupertino, CA to be near his daughter and family. A serious student of the game, he contributed a great deal to our club activities. He died at age 96 and yet remembered us through the bequest of his extensive library of bridge books. Our special condolences to the families and friends of both Hal and Pete.

The latter part of January was boom-boom time for Tim Lolli who registered a 71.25% game with Carolyn Cohen and a 72% with Dan Oakes. A third boom belongs to Brad Beland and Dennis Semain for their 70.83 percenter. We're even presenting a fourth boom to Gregg Alsdorf & Glenn Silcott, newcomers to duplicate bridge, for placing first recently. Themewise only, it's a Boomer generation— like IV, n'est-ce-pas? Margaret Mataga and I had a good round trip to the Las Vegas sectional which has been moved from the Riviera to Ballys. There is a connecting corridor to the Paris Hotel where we found a good buffet. We both came home with MPs and fond food memories, including a lunch stop at Peggy Sue's Diner on the drive back.

As for the February Unit Game, Merry Besvold used her mom's recipe for the barbecued chicken and rice entrée, so Betty Stenbom gets a share of our plaudits, as do Betsy and Nancy for the salads and Eva and Margaret for desserts. Gametime glory was shared by the following:

Boom-booms to all of you for jobs well done. As noted above, our next Unit Game is on March 12, the approach to Springtime. You and it will be most welcome! Take care, everybody...

Unit Game – Election Party

March 6

Elk's Lodge Arcadia

First of all, the Election Party is just around the corner, so make plans now to attend. It will be at The Elk's Lodge in Arcadia and the cost is $35.00. Dinner will be a choice of salmon or prime rib, and you will enjoy two sessions of bridge— a Pairs game in the afternoon and a Swiss in the evening.

The unit game last month was a huge success, partly because Peter Szecsi and Bernie Mateer were in charge of the food. I hear it was excellent! They were the busy bees. I drove them to the Las Vegas tournament and we came home late Friday night, and they were able to present a beautiful spread for the unit game with very little time to prepare. We had fried chicken, homemade baked beans and all the trimmings. I was happy to see that some of the baked beans and a cake or two survived and were served to the Monday crowd. They were absolutely delicious! Thanks to you two for such a great meal! Shui-Ming Huang and Robert Wang took away the big winnings with a 67.21% win. That's a great score against tough competition, right? Finishing off B and C categories were Jeff Lang and Eric Tang who won both flights.

Our unit brought home some nice wins from the Las Vegas Sectional. Peter Szecsi and Bernie Mateer waltzed in after the drive from home and had no problem winning the Monday Open Pairs game. Shui-Ming and Robert also won an Open Pairs and Nancy Spelke won a 299'er game. The tournament was held at Bally's, which is 100% better than the Riviera; nice playing area, great rooms for $49 per night, great prizes and overall good fun. They were up 400 tables from last year.

We were so sorry to hear of Bob Mesias' death. Joanie is loved by everyone, and I know she will be surrounded with great support at this difficult time in her life.

Do you know the term, The Big Double? It's a description of the hand where you double and then bid after partner's forced response. Double-and-Then-Bid auctions promise a hand too strong for an initial overcall. Most good players today set pretty high standards for such a bidding sequence—approximately 18 HCP with a 5-card suit or a good 15-16 with a 6+ card suit. Mike Lawrence wrote many fine books, but one of them is titled, "Takeout Doubles," and gives this example for a minimum Big Double.

1♣	dbl	pass	1♥
pass	1♠

Mike says this might be a typical hand: ♠KQJ9x
♥AQ ♦AQxx ♣xx

As you can see, it would be uncomfortable to simply bid 1♠ directly, so you use the Big Double - start with a double and then bid your suit after partner responds.

Suppose you hold this hand and your RHO opens the bidding 1♦: It's too big for a 1NT overcall so you start with the Big Double and then bid 1NT after partner's response. ♠KQx ♥Ax ♦AJT9 ♣KQxx

Here's a simple rule you might consider – Any time you double and then make a call that you could have made immediately, you are telling your partner that you have a very good hand with approximately 18+ points or the equivalent.

Keep this in mind when you have a big hand in the overcall position: A Big Double is not forcing and partner is allowed to pass. A double followed by a jumpshift is even stronger and most likely shows at least a 6-card suit, but it's still not forcing as partner can pass with a terrible hand and a misfit. With a hand that is strong enough to insist on game, Double-Then-Cuebid-Then-Bid-a-New-Suit. This sequence is absolutely forcing to game with slam interest, and partner cannot pass.

See you at the table.

Unit Game

Saturday, March 19, 11:00 a.m.

Lunch served

Now that the excitement of the unit presidential inauguration has worn off, unit members are once again settling back into the local bridge routine.

The Friday morning La Fetra game continues to be our best attended club game. Early risers should also give the Tuesday 8:45 game a try. And for those of you who still appreciate a chance to get out for a nice evening of bridge, the Thursday night game has been running at 6:00 p.m. for several months now. The early starting time ensures that you'll get home by 10. If lack of a partner is a problem, call Roger Boyar at 626 214 6354. But don't be afraid to drop in as a single. Roger will make sure you get to play.

Due to incredible efficiency and a fortuitous deadline, the results of January's unit game made it into last month's column. Rather than repeat them to fill space, I'll substitute some results from the recent Riverside regional. Congratulations to Joe Unis and Donald Naf, who won the B/C open pairs event with a nice 62% game. Lary Alba and Dave Ruoff took a 3rd in the open pairs, and Lynne Parker, Mary Miller, Karen McCarthy, and Helen Wang finished 2nd in a Knockout event. Kathy Helber, Genise Hasan, Susan Emminger, Clint Lew, Richard Patterson, and Joe Unis also placed in team events. Unis, Ruoff, and Naf led local players in total points.

In local club results, top game of the month was a 72.9% effort by Dave Ruoff and Vic Sartor. Other winners were Lulu Minter, Bill Papa, Roger Boyar, Paul Christney, Mary Miller, Milt Kalikman, Marjorie Preston, Clara Satterfield, Charlotte Capelle, Hanah Mogharbel, Lary Alba, Karen McCarthy, Suzanne Wojcik, Cordell Goode, Susan Ruoff, Lois Snowden, Donald Logsdon, Ann McClelland, and Ron Purkis.

In social news, we hope to see Herb Stamfl back at the tables soon. He's been recuperating from leg surgery. And we are sorry to announce that we are losing one of our nicest players and conscientious unit board members. Lynne Parker is moving to Michigan. We wish her the best of luck.

The authenticity of this month's hand of the month may be viewed by some with skepticism. I will sign an affidavit and swear on a stack of Bridge Worlds, however, that it was hand-dealt at a local game. I will further attest that I actually played the hand and at least 20 other players will back my recollection of the cards. You hold: ♠AKJ872 ♥AQ109853. Yes, 6-7-0-0. You can look up the odds on holding this distribution, but I'm betting they're not as good as holding 4-4-3-2 or 5-3-3-2. How would you bid this monster? You might open it 2♣, but your partner may not expect only 14 HCP. It would be a shame to go down in 6NT or 7NT when your third opponent takes you seriously. You could open it 1H, planning a reverse, but will your partner ever believe your second suit is SIX cards long? I decided the chances for confusion were too great a risk, so I opted for a simpler plan—1♠, followed by a 6H rebid! Not perfect, perhaps, but pard should get the idea you don't have too many cards in the minors.

As it happened, the auction proceeded 1♠ - 2♦ - 2♠! - pass. Back to you.

Perhaps naively, I still was looking at the possibility that we might get to 7, so I followed my original plan and bid 6H. It was remotely possible pard could have the queen of spades, the king of hearts, and a good crystal ball.

But he merely corrected to a sensible 6♠.

Interestingly, he did have a hand that made 7 a cinch against the opponents' actual holdings. LHO had a stiff king of hearts and ♠953. Pard had: ♠Q64 ♥7 ♦10973 ♣QJ1085 Notice the spade spots. After dropping the heart king you can ruff out hearts while LHO can do nothing but grind his teeth in frustration. If you and your favorite partner would have bid and made the grand, I can only doff my fedora to you. Til next time...

Opening Lead of the Year

Our esteemed director Mike Savage was my partner at a recent sectional Swiss. He held: ♠x ♥Axxxx ♦ATx ♣xxxx. The auction had gone 1NT by RHO, 2♥ (transfer) by LHO, 2♠ by RHO, all pass. What would you lead? Not many players would lead a low diamond away from the Ace into the NoTrump bidder but Mike did. He caught me holding: ♠9xxx ♥KQ ♦Kx ♣Txxxx. I was surprised when my ♦K won the trick and quickly led one back. Mike gave me a diamond ruff so I switched to the ♥K which held the trick. The Declarer and dummy each had 3 hearts and I continued with the ♥Q which Mike overtook with the ♥A. Another heart from Mike gave me a ruff for down one. I think the result at the other table was 2♠ making 4. Pretty spectacular lead from Mike if I do say so myself.

GUV Memorial Award

A couple of ladies from our unit recently travelled to the Honolulu Regional and did quite well winning four team events between them. However there were a few bumps in the road usually provided by a certain one of them. I will make this a guessing game to see if you can identify that person.

On one hand she was declarer in 6NT which was cold for 7. However said lady thought she was in 6♦ and proceeded to lock herself off dummy going down 3.

She was my partner a couple days later and I tried a weak 2♦ bid in first seat. She bid 2NT which was an Ogust bid asking me to further describe my hand. My response was 3♣ showing a bad hand and not that great a diamond suit. Our protagonist thought for a bit trying to make up her mind on whether to bid a conservative 3♦ or a pushy 3NT. She made up her mind and placed a pass card on the table. Thats right, I got to declare 3♣ with a singleton in the suit going down 3 when 4♦ was cold. Dame fortune was on our side as the opponents tried 3NT at the other table and went down a trick so our loss was minimal.

Back home she proved it wasn't the tropical air that caused these aberrations. In a Tuesday night team game as my partner she held a bad hand in second seat. Her RHO opened 1♠. For some reason she placed a Double card on the table without realizing it. Her LHO bid 1NT and I was looking at a full opening hand and four small hearts, so I decided to cue bid 2♠. She bid 3♥ thinking I was trying Michaels and before I could bid 4♥ my RHO doubled. A minus 1100 points later everybody at the table had to convince her that she had indeed put the Double card on the table.

Nice guy that I am I would never tell you who she was by putting her name in print. Besides, I promised her that I would never let her sister Gabby know she did these things.

“Honey, I Forgot to Duck!”

You may have noticed that I'm not Candy Scott. Candy's contributions to the world of bridge have included years of service with the Unit Board and countless hours conceiving and organizing unit events, as well as making sure we're all fed when we arrive at them.

For years, Candy also has undertaken the task of writing the Unit column. She recently noticed, though, that she's only human, and like the rest of us can rarely fit more than 28 hours or so into any single day. Unfortunately for me, when Candy realized that something would have to give, I was daydreaming. So when volunteers were asked to step forward as Candy's successor, everyone else took a giant step backward, leaving yours truly holding the bag. Or keyboard, as it were.

Thank you, Candy, for your many years of service as our columnist. Warn me next time, would you?

Zalman Perelman, Bruce Altshuler, and Bruce's regular partner, Bud Bates, to win the District's berth in the Flight B Grand National Teams.

The 26 gold points the team picked up for the win also allowed Zalman to earn his gold card. Bruce and Bud have been there, done that, but this sort of thing never gets old. (At least, that's what I hear.) Congratulations to the winning team, and the best of luck in Toronto. Our representatives for the Championship Flight also were selected February 13. When you read this, selections for Flights A and C will be just around the corner. I hope to see you there.

More from the Tournament Trail

Riverside held its regional at the start of the month. I didn't get many reports from the tournament, but I noticed a few names I recognized among the overalls. Congratulations to Danny Kleinman and Sally Karbelnig for their performance in the Open Pairs. Honorable mention to Joel Schiff, Brana Hall, and Nancy Heck, who along with their teammate vanquished all comers in the Friday afternoon Swiss Teams. The Cloughs and their teammates also won a Swiss.

A Year to Remember

The winners of our Unit's Mini McKenney and Ace of Clubs awards for 2010 have been announced.

Mini McKenney winners are Bonnie Butler, Wayne Beagle, David Lyons, Karen Schwartz, Richard Gliksman, Donna Massman, Sue Ann Simon, Joyce Lelah, Rahim Israel, Reese Milner, Aram Bedros, Mike Savage, and Becky Clough. These players all will be entitled to a free play at the Unit's Spring Sectional.

Grass Roots Achievements

Our clubs, of course, are the bedrock of the ACBL. But they can't fulfill this role without the players who play there. So notable achievements at our clubs should, and will, be spotlighted here.

Karen Schwartz and Bob Ashen won the Unit Championship. Victors at Beverly Hills club championships were Joyce Lelah and Zalman Perelman,

What call do you make?

Some panelists try 5NT, knowing that it is without discussion. They are not all in agreement with how partner should respond.

Bell. 5NT. This pretty much describes my strength and allows partner to put us into a contract in his long suit. This won't be an auction most partnerships have discussed, but I don't think Stayman or transfers should apply here since six or seven of a minor may be our best spot.

Dunitz. 5NT. Should command partner to bid a 5-card suit (we're in the twilight zone here, who discusses such things?)

Kantar. 3NT/5NT. If the double negative cannot have as much as two queens, I am rebidding 3NT. If it can have as much as two queens, then I am rebidding 5NT, asking partner to raise me one level for each queen he has. I do understand that if I rebid 3NT, I run the risk of partner asking me what the hell I was doing after he tables ♠xxx ♥xx ♦xx ♣xxxxx! The Kokish forcing 2NT rebid in this sequence would have come in handy here.

Sacks. 5NT. Since I do not have a way to make a forcing bid in NT, I will bid a pick a slam 5NT bid. This should ask for four-card suits up the line. If partner manages to bid 6♣, I will pass, otherwise take my shot with 6NT. Perhaps 5NT should ask for a five-card suit. Who knows? I do not think I will try to come up with an agreement for my next 32 HCP hand.

Meyers. 4NT. If partner has Qxxxx of either black suit maybe she will bid a slam; if not I have 10 tricks off the top.

Swanson. 4NT. If you pick up this hand often you will want to add Kokish to your arsenal, or a forcing club. Also, switch to rubber bridge. As it is, I will bid something I know will make - 4NT.

Davis. 4NT.

Clough. 3♣. After much thought, I would bid 3♣ with the assumption that it is a one-round force which allows partner to describe his hand.

Considering the ambiguity of 5NT, maybe 3♣, forcing partner to bid naturally at a low level is very practical. Some guess work will be necessary though. Becky held this hand at the table and submitted it (and problem 2). Her partner actually held ♠QTxxx ♥xx ♦Txxx ♣x; 7NT was best, but with everything breaking well, 7NT, 7♠, and 7♦ all would make.

* forcing NT

You, South, hold: ♠- ♥AKJ86 ♦97543 ♣J63
What call do you make?

Sacks. 2♥. If I get another bid, I will bid 4♦ but even that may be wrong if partner has something like AQ of the pointed suits (spades and diamonds) with a stiff heart and 3 small clubs. Who among us bid 2♦ over 1NT forcing with ♠AJ654 ♥xx ♦AKJ ♣xxx? If you would bid this way, then anyone claiming that a rebid of 2♦ with only three diamonds must have three hearts is clearly wrong. I do play that partner must bid again over 2♥ if they have a singleton or void. Thus, I will at least be playing a reasonable, if not the best, contract if it is passed out.

Davis. 2♥. It helps if partner is not expected to pass with a stiff. If playing differently, then 3♦.

Swanson. 2♥. This will go very wrong only if partner has a singleton heart. If the minors were switched and partner had rebid 2♣ I would raise rather than risking 2♥.

Both Davis and Sacks studied the original Walsh system in which Richard Walsh recommended not passing in this sequence with a singleton heart. Note that despite being one of the system developers, Swanson doesn't currently play this way, thinking partner will pass with a singleton. Some panelists play that 3♥ here shows a diamond fit.

Kantar. 3♥. 3♥ should show this hand type. However,

I don't play a 2♥ 2/1 response followed by 3♥ as forcing in some sequences. (Eddie doesn't play 2/1 is a game force, so his jump to 3♥ in this auction can't be 10 HCP with 6 hearts, because he would have already made a Standard American 2/1 into 2♥ with that holding. Therefore his jump to 3♥ has a diamond fit.)

Dunitz. 3♥. I like 3♥ if this is a fit bid (my preferred treatment). (See Kantar's answer. I believe Mitch plays a direct 3♥ over 1♠ as invitational in hearts in some partnerships.) Otherwise, I'm guessing. I would probably bid 4♦.

Other panelists want to make a straight-forward diamond raise, but they don't agree on how many diamonds to bid.

Clough. 3♦. This is the least controversial, but will often be passed when game is available. At matchpoints I like 3♥ even though I only have five, because they are good ones. If partner bids 3NT, I will bid 4♦.

Bell. 4♦. A direct invitation to game is to the point, but it would be nice if there was some forcing bid available.

Meyers. 5♦, and hope they don't lead a club.

 What call do you make?

1♠ normally shows four spades here, but a majority of the panel thinks that sneaking in one teensy-weensy lie will make the rest of the hand easier to handle.

Davis. 1♠. It's close between 1♠, 2♣, and 2.6♥. The extra room and wide range of strength for the 1♠ rebid will hopefully give us a better chance to find the right contract than 2♣, 2♥ or 3♥.

Clough. 1♠. I don't like any of my choices on this hand; 3♥ is too unilateral and 3♣ impossible. My choice is 1♠. If partner has diamonds we may belong in NT. I would raise 1NT to 2NT.

Dunitz. 1♠. I like the treatment that 3♦ shows a good hand with 6-3-3-1 pattern. The problem with 3♦ is that my high cards are all outside my first bid suit. I have no quarrel with 3♥, but confess, I would bid 1♠.

Sacks. 1♠. I'm not strong enough to reverse into my singleton, have no desire to rebid my moth-eaten minor and am slightly too good to raise to two hearts; I will at least bid where I live. 2♥ over partner's 1NT rebid does show extras (at least by my way of looking at it). In my advancing years, I am no longer of the cult of "must have 4" to raise one of a major.

Kantar. 1♠. The least of all evils?

Meyers 2♥. I don't want to get passed out in 2♣, plus I don't want to miss a possible major suit game.

Swanson. 2♥. If partner holds five hearts to the KJ this is a very good hand. If he has four to the six spot it's not so good.

Bell. 2♣. The temptation here is to bid 3♥, but I'm taking the low road at matchpoints and will come to life if partner bids again.

Thank you to Roger Clough who submitted this problem.

- There is a motion to fund international play, first from money raised from the ACBL sponsoring "International Fund Games" and not from the general fund of the ACBL.

There are also motions dealing with the Junior Fund and a motion continued from Orlando regarding use of the Stop Card. Additionally there is a motion dealing with

I will have a full recap of our meeting in the April Southern California Bridge News.

On the district level, my two main current responsibilities are the creation of a slate of candidates for ALACBU offices which will be voted on at the July ALACBU meeting (look for an article about the election in this paper) and running a District Spring Sectional whose sole purpose is to raise money to help our Grand National Teams offset some of their costs of representing our district at the GNT Finals this summer in Toronto. Anyone wishing to help with this event, please call me.

Hope to see many of our district members in Louisville.

 What call do you make?

Some panelists would prefer 1♠ to the 2♣ rebid.

Sacks. 3NT. I want to abstain; the ridiculous 2♣ rebid has created an impossible problem. In the above auction 2♠ did not show spades, I think, in most expert partnerships it is the default bad hand rebid. It's denies having a decent further descriptive bid (perhaps ♠xxx ♥x ♦AJx ♣KQJxxx or ♠xxx ♥Q ♦KQJ ♣KQxxxx, though with that one I admit I would bid 2♥ with the stiff honor).

Davis. 3NT. It is my responsibility to rebid 1♠ if I have interest in playing in spades if we have a 4-4 spade fit. I would have rebid 1♠.

Kanter. 3NT I can live with 2♣, but probably would have rebid 1♠. I'll try 3NT now. My spades can't be all that great. What I will tell my partner after they run the suit?

Bell. 3NT. I hate, hate, hate bidding no-trump with a void in partner's suit, but I certainly want to slow the auction as much as possible, and I do have a slow diamond stopper.

Clough. 3NT. 4♣ and 4♥ are all possibilities, but none are perfect. My choice is 3NT.

Swanson. 3NT.

Meyers. 4♥. 3NT is out of the question. Partner may only have one entry outside the heart suit, which is not necessarily solid.

Dunitz. 4♥.

I actually agree with raising with the void. That should scare my partners!

Climbing the Ranks

It looks like there's been a lot of bridge-playing round these parts—an awful lot of us have advanced in rank. Congratulations to new Junior Masters James Ach, Rosemarie Bock, John Burris, Douglas Campbell, Jennifer Friedman, Toni Gold, Yehudit Hasin-Brumshten, Bernice Leve, and Doreen Lewin. Our newest Club Masters are Elizabeth Beagle, Donna Eastman, and Ashok Hargunani. Moving up to Sectional Master are Bobbie Geller, Nathan Gittleman, and John

New Life Masters deserve a new paragraph. Congratulations to Marcia Lauffer-Rosner and Joan and Steven Little for their achievement. Peggy Levin and Sherry Starr are now Bronze Life Masters. Advancing to Silver Life Master are Adi Arieli and John Campbell.

What call do you make?

This time, some panelists don't care for the 3♠ splinter, preferring a heart rebid instead.

Kantar. 5♦. I don't agree with the splinter. It is too weak with only one keycard. I would have rebid 2♥. Also, I would be responding to RKB playing my way over 4♦. Finally, I would sign off in 5♦ as I have already overbid and I picture something like ♠AKxx ♥-- ♦AJTxxx ♣Qxx over there and I don't want landing in 6♦ on these cards to be on my head.

Dunitz. 5♦. I don't care for 3♠. One should not chew up so much bidding room when they are uncertain what strain they wish to play in.

Sacks. 5♣. Once again I'm placed badly by a ridiculously bad rebid of a splinter bid (2♥ was absolutely clear). At least if 5♣ gets doubled we can stop in 5♦. This serves us right if partner has ♠Ax ♥J ♦AJxxx ♣AQJTx and we get to play a tenuous 6♦ cold for 7NT.

Bell. 6♥. Let's correct my earlier faux pas by showing

MY suit. This protects my CK (partner presumably doesn't have the ace) and will roll home even opposite a void if the J♥ falls doubleton or third. I don't expect much company for this bid!

Swanson. 5♥. Maybe I should have rebid hearts earlier.

Davis. 5NT. This asks partner to pick a slam. This should show enough values for a slam and the guarded club king since I would bid 5♣ with the ace of clubs and jump to 6♦ with the KQ of clubs. If partner has ♠Axx ♥Jx ♦AKQxxx ♣xx, we should reach 6NT.

Clough. 6♥. This protects the ♣K.

Meyers. 4NT. If partner has three key cards and the queen of trumps I am bidding 6♥ to protect the club king.
