

Maureen McEvoy – An Appreciation

Maureen McEvoy (née McKeague) died unexpectedly on 14th June 2015. She was born in Culdaff, Co. Donegal, was educated in Dublin and also completed her training as a primary school teacher in Dublin (following in her mother's profession). She started her teaching career in Lindsay Road National School and soon after took on the role of Principal until her retirement. Among the many tributes paid to her as Principal were her great organisational skills, dedication and support of her fellow teachers.

Maureen enjoyed many hobbies such as golf (she was Lady Captain of Balcarrick GC at the time of her death). She had recently taken up bridge and had become a member of the Malahide Regional Bridge Club. Maureen was also a very active member of the Lusk ICA guild. She will be remembered for her enthusiasm and zest for life.

Maureen is survived by her beloved husband Declan, sons Colin and Andrew, daughter Claire and will be sadly missed by her family and many friends.

*May she rest in peace.
Una Cambell & Mary Connor*