

I did not realize I had become a Club Master.

This is due to BBO. I have been able to stay sane during the pandemic because I have games scheduled with Hot Springs Village, Hot Springs and Little Rock clubs every week. I am playing with a wonderful partner, Nikki Choyce, who I'm sure will be at this level very very soon.

I am truly grateful that the BBO has made this possible for all of us who are staying home and safe.