

I learned to play bridge several years ago with a small duplicate group in Huntsville. When I moved to Fairhope I met bridge players through Newcomers and began playing social bridge and making great friends. During the pandemic I played online with the Eastern Shore duplicate group and learned a lot! Everyone was very nice and when in person bridge started again it was fun to put a name to a face. I am gradually playing more duplicate and enjoying it.