

In 1973 I enrolled in a bridge class and we were invited to play at the club. The teacher, a director, started the first novice bridge game in Birmingham, Alabama. It was work, but traveling to tournaments, talking bridge, dinners, and meeting new people are treasured memories. I have always been more comfortable partnering with friends on my level. It is with gratitude for their help and perseverance that I achieved Emerald status.

Charlotte Rueschenberg