

I began playing social bridge when I retired 4 years ago. I read the book "Bridge for Dummies" by Eddie Kantar to learn current bidding practices. When we moved to Huntsville 2 years ago, I joined the ACBL and began playing with the beginner's group in the Huntsville contract bridge assoc. Special thanks to Bud Hullings and Donna Merchant for inviting and helping new players at the club.