

Since I did not play online during the pandemic I was afraid I would not achieve my goal. Fortunately my club has been offering lots of extra point games which made it easier. During the two years when our club was closed I took lessons with bridge experts. These kept me active and improved my game.