

Welcome ADOBE BRIDGE CLUB

We have the following recommendation from Greg Coles at ACBL:

Please take the recommended action below. You only need to do this once. Reminder, our game only shows up starting about 2 hours before the start time (1:15 PM).

See the list of tournaments that are open for registration in the screenshot below? You can click on the vacb ID for your club's tournament and the little window pops up on the right. vacb235408 is used as an example below. Then change Neutral to Follow.

The screenshot shows the ACBL Virtual Clubs interface. On the left, there is a table of tournaments with columns for Host, Title, Type, Start, Entries, and Entry Fee. The table lists several tournaments, including 'Pairs QuickTricks 6:45 209er #6163' and 'Pairs QuickTricks 6:45 Open #785'. On the right, a user profile window for 'vacb235408' is open, showing the user's name 'QuickTricks Will', country 'Other', skill level 'Private', creation date '2020-03-23', and logins '33'. Below the profile, there is a dropdown menu set to 'Neutral' and a 'Show chat' button. At the bottom right, there are three notification items: 'ACBL SYC Pairs Tournaments', 'BBF: Teams Game, suggested feature', and 'BBF: What were they thinking?'.

| Host | Title | Type | Start | Entries | Entry Fee |

In Addition:

If you are BLOCKED when trying to sign into a BBO game, make sure of the following:

Your ACBL number must be entered into your BBO Account

To enter or update your ACBL Number:

1. Log in to BBO
2. Click on “ACBL World” of the page that comes up next.

3. Then Click on “Update Your ACBL Number” at the bottom of the page”

You must have enough money to cover the game in your BBO$

If you continue to be Blocked, please send an email to adobebridgeinfo@gmail.com with your name, your BBO handle, and your ACBL number.
