BIDDING QUIZ by Barbara

South

♠ AQ873
♥ KQT52
♦ K2
♣ 3

South	West	North	East
1 ♠	Pass	2 ♦	Pass
2 ♥	Pass	3 ♣	Pass
??

Even if 3 ♣ is the convention: Fourth Suit Forcing, you should now bid 3 ♥. Not 3NT. Responder may have had:

♥ 743
♦ AQJ76
♣ AQJ8

The safest and thus best contract is 4 ♥. Partner will now raise to 4 ♥ because you have found your 5-3 fit in ♥. When you rebid your Heart suit, partner knows you have five Hearts.

Here's another:

♠ KQ9864
♥ J832
♦ AQ
♣ 3

South	West	North	East
1 ♠	Pass	1NT*	Pass
??

* = Not forcing

So many players are in a hurry to rebid their spades in this scenario. You really ought to bid 2H next. Partner may have had:

♠ 3
♥ A975
♦ 6432
♣ Q876

She can now pass your 2 ♥ rebid and you have landed in your 4-4 heart fit

This time, partner opens 1 ♥ and you have this hand: You bid 1S. Partner now bids 2C. What will you now bid with the following hand?

♠ A8763
♥ 75
♦ K432
♣ 876

You must now bid 2 ♥. Your partner has at least 5 ♥ and maybe only 4 ♣. When you are a 6-9 point responder, you must choose one of her suits. You now bid 2 ♥. The 5-2 major suit fit is a better choice than the maybe 4-3 fit in a minor. If you had only one ♥ and three ♣'s, you say Pass.

Congratulations to Roy Dandyk of Kitchener/Waterloo, ON who earned enough masterpoints on Monday to reach LifeMaster! Roy will be hosting a round of drinks for everyone at the pool bar on Wednesday afternoon after the Rum Pairs! To top that, Roy and his partner Suzanne Edwards finished 2nd in Flight A and 1st in Flight B&C in yesterday morning's pair game!

This was another deal from the same team match. Both Souths ended in 5♥ and West led the king of spades.

The first declarer took the ace of spades and threw a diamond from hand. Next, he played the heart queen and continued with a low club from the table. Declarer knew the best play in the suit: he correctly covered East's pip with his nine. West won the trick with the jack of clubs and exited with the queen of spades. Declarer ruffed, then crossed to dummy with a trump and led a second low club towards his hand, playing the queen when East followed low. Alas for him, West took this with the king and, as there was no way to avoid a diamond loser, declarer finished with only ten tricks for down one.

The second declarer was a more experienced hand. He played low from dummy at trick one and threw a low diamond from his hand. West shifted to a diamond, but it was to no avail. Declarer rose with dummy's ace and then continued with the ace of spades, discarding his remaining diamond from his hand. Next, he ruffed a diamond high in hand and then led a low trump to dummy's queen. After ruffing dummy's jack of diamonds, declarer crossed back to dummy with a trump to the jack. Now he led a low club with the intention of covering East's card.

At the table East played ♣10, hoping to thwart declarer's obvious attempt to duck a club to his partner. Declarer stuck to his plan and covered this with his queen. West won the trick with the king of clubs but was now endplayed. Obviously, as a spade or a diamond would concede a ruff-and-discard, West exited with the three of clubs. Declarer now claimed his contract making the ace of spades, five trumps, the ace of diamonds, two diamond ruffs and the ace-nine of clubs. Also, you should note that winning the first trick with the ace of spades and then playing the nine of spades, with the aim of pitching a diamond, loses when East puts up the ten of spades at trick two. Finally, both East players did well to pass 5♥, as 5♠ would be doubled and set two for +500 to North-South.
