

Minutes of BHBC board meeting December 22,2019

Present: Tim Deegan, Dawn Lee, Nancy Heck, Lee Hausner, Marcia Fisher, Debbie Baker, John Ramos

To the unanimous disappointment of the board, Tim announced that due to a time intensive commitment to LACMA he can no longer serve as president of the board at this time. For the next meeting Marcia Fisher will assume his position until the new board elects a president.

Debbie Baker also announced that she will not be running for the board in the upcoming election

Debbie is preparing the ballot for the annual general meeting of the BHBC on February 2nd when the election for new board members will take place.

Managers report

John reported that the table count was down 300 from last year. He wants to have as many special games as possible due to the demand for increased masterpoints.

John showed the board a demo of a new bridge website design from BridgeCloud. The board liked the design and agreed that we should investigate moving out website to their service.

A new 0-99 game will begin on January 18. A new round of Beginner2-Plus classes are given on Wednesday morning and Beginner 2 classes on Tuesday mornings.

A free Quick and Easy Bridge seminar will be held on Sunday, January 12th

The possibility of obtaining room dividers has been rejected as prohibitively expensive. John is working with the city to try to implement some of Rick Turner's proposed beautification initiatives.

The next board meeting will be held January 19, 2020 at 11:30AM
