

LEARN THE GAME OF BRIDGE AT CARDIFF BRIDGE CLUB

Anyone can learn to play bridge – you don't have to be Warren Buffet(left) or Bill Gates (right)!

We all understand the need to keep physically active throughout our lifetime. But keeping mentally active is equally important. The game of bridge can keep us challenged mentally and also provides good social interaction with like-minded people.

There are many aspects to the game of bridge which all contribute to the continued fascination. Anyone can learn to play bridge and our bridge courses have been developed and refined by the English Bridge Union over the last 40 years.

At Cardiff Bridge club, our bridge teachers are both experienced bridge players and fully qualified bridge teachers dedicated to helping you achieve your goal of becoming an active participant in your local bridge playing community.

Cardiff Bridge club is an excellent venue for bridge teaching, spacious with good presentation facilities and other technologically advanced teaching aids.

There are many bridge clubs in the South Wales area to choose from and you can play bridge at a local club every day of the week, weekend tournaments and you can enjoy a wide range of bridge holidays and cruises. In addition, you can play "online" 24x7x365!

To find out more, book onto our free Bridge "taster" Session to be held at Cardiff Bridge Club on Wednesday 23rd September 2026 at 14:00hrs. Or just book-up for the first term (each term is 10 weeks) starting on Wednesday 30th September 2026 14:00-16:00hrs and continuing every Wednesday afternoon until December 2nd 2026.

The course fee for each 10 week course is £190 which includes "Beginning Bridge" course documentation. You also will receive associate membership of Penylan Bowling & Cardiff Bridge Club so you can enjoy all our club's facilities. For more information or to book the course or the free "taster" session please email: teaching@cardiffbridgeclub.org.

Penylan Bowling & Cardiff Bridge Club, Marlborough Road, Cardiff CF23 5BU