14.4. If such a limit is for the time being in force, a non member who has applied for membership shall (subject to available playing facilities) be permitted to play at the Club until his application for membership has been considered by the Committee, even if the limit imposed by the Committee is thereby exceeded.

NOTES

1. Insert name of Club.
2. The model is designed for clubs who wish to be affiliated to the EBU. Such clubs will naturally tend to focus on duplicate bridge, but may also provide facilities for rubber/Chicago. For such clubs, insert “and other” after the word “duplicate”.

For the purposes of Bridge for All and other clubs associated with teaching and/or catering particularly for beginners, it may be appropriate to expand the statement of objects to include something along the following lines:-

“facilities for less experienced players to learn and to play Contract Bridge in a friendly and supportive atmosphere”
3. In the case of peripatetic clubs, or those who meet at more than one venue, this clause may need to be adapted, references to the headquarters later in the Constitution being defined to include:-

“such venue or venues as the Committee shall from time to time arrange within the XYZ area / within 10 miles of ABC as playing accommodation for the Club”.

or appropriate wording of a similar nature.

If the Club has no fixed HQ, then unless a suitable definition has been included (see above) then amend to:-

“all premises at which the Club regularly meets”

If the club has a fixed HQ but also meets elsewhere, both forms of words should be included.
4. Insert name of County Association
5. You might wish to provide that a member who has been expelled from the club, or has resigned from the club or allowed his membership to lapse whilst suspended from the privileges of membership, should always have to reapply formally, but no doubt the Committee would exercise its discretion to require a formal reapplication in such a case.
6. Clubs may wish to designate other posts (e.g. Chief Tournament Director, Competition Secretary etc.). It is normally preferable that the holders of such posts are not formally designated as Officers of the Club.
7. Clubs may wish to provide that a member should not serve as Chairman for more than a specified number of consecutive years. It would not be normal to put a limit on the length of service of the other Officers.
8. The size of the Committee will depend on a number of factors, including the size and type of club and the scale of its activities. The intention is to provide a number that will allow the jobs to be divided up sensibly without having a Committee that is large enough to prove unwieldy.
9. The model deliberately does not set out to specify how the proceedings of the Committee should be regulated, preferring to let the Committee lay down such matters for itself (see paragraph 7.5). The position of co-opted members can cause difficulty, as a result of which some organisations (including the EBU itself) make co-opted members non-voting. This does prevent a Committee flooding itself with its own cronies, but the model endeavours to avoid this problem by putting a maximum limit on overall Committee numbers and prescribing annual elections for the whole Committee.
10. The quorum should be small enough to avoid the likelihood of meetings having to be rearranged because of the lack of a quorum, and to allow for the possibility of decisions by a small number of Committee members in an emergency (it should be a matter for the Committee’s own rules (under paragraph 7.5) as to when it is regarded as acceptable for a Committee decision to be made at such an emergency meeting when a number of Committee members may not have the opportunity to attend). Generally a quorum should usually be between one-third and one-half of the total Committee membership (including officers).
