

TRICKS AND TREATS

For Members of the Columbia Duplicate Bridge Club

(The calendar is On-line at columbia.bridge-club.org.)

The January Birthday party was a Junior Fund Game. Craig Lemrow and Kenyon Stevenson who are two of our newest “C” players, came up big with 65% to win the event.

If you are keeping score-that’s 9 “B” players, 8 “C” players (including the winners) and 3 “A’s”.

The first CBC GNT qualifier brought out a record number of teams-24. At the end of 8 matches, the locals had done rather well. Some top CBC members’ only final results:

January 29 will resume the “take a new player to the game” promotion on Thursday afternoons.

February 16 will be an Over/Under game with a Mardi Gras theme. We have chili and chips, a little wine and a lot of good time on tap. Last time we did this about a year and a half ago, we had 19 tables. As the GNT event showed, we can even handle a few more, so, see you there! You don’t need a partner, we pair everyone up just before game time. Everyone plays Yellow Card.

Winners of the January 8th 8 is enough team Game:

	Wins	Victory Pts.	Master pts
1) Bob and Pat Webb/Sue Hopke/Greg Garrison	3	50	1.87
2) B. Holcomb/S. Blackwell/Kenyon Stevenson/Craig Lemrow	2.5	47	1.40

Winners of the Jan. 15th 8 is enough team game:

1) Bel and Mary Ann Cross/Abduhl Ghaffar/Patrick Lauterbach	3.5	58	1.87
2) Mary Townhill/Jack Self/Scott Dunn/Dot Jones	2.5	49	1.40

I know the name of this game is “8 is enough” but Mary’s team has two “B” and two “C” players for a total of 6 points and has dominated for about the last year. Brent regularly breaks through with another 6 point team. As a matter of fact, the only 8 point teams out there are the Webbs and Joyce when she plays with Harold or Ken. There was a four point team (four “C” players) who had a win and a tie on the 15th. You don’t need a couple “A” players to be successful. There’s 6-8 teams that play regularly. We have room for more. Grab 3 friends and give it a shot.

Marcia Fletcher’s team had a catered lunch during the Saturday Jan. 24 GNT 2-session qualifier. You’re supposed to play with a 4, 5 or 6 person team-at last count she had 11 volunteers for her squad. Thanks to Dode, Mary Ann Cross and helpers who made the event special.
