

Making sure you play with your partner.

When you enter Bridge Club Live a lot of the time you will have made arrangements to play with your regular partner, so what you don't want is to sit at a table and find someone else joining you! In Bridge Club Live you have two options, Invite to Play or Set as partner.

Firstly, "Invite to play"

You need to enter the room that you wish to play in, if you're unsure how to enter the room click on this link. <https://www.bridgewebs.com/fulbourn/How%20to%20start%20playing%20in%20DIDO.pdf>

When you are in the room where you are going to play, click on the "Members" tab at the top of the screen and a list like the following appears: -

The screenshot shows the 'Members' tab in the Bridge Club Live interface. A list of users is displayed, including NickJUK, nickro, NightQueen, NTT, oberon1, Optimist1935, PatWN67140, PegFN73927, PenelopeV55019, PeterB93520, PhoenixEast, Finto, Queenie Cole, RaduM, RajivA67017, and RebeccaM59946. Queenie Cole is circled in blue. On the right, a profile for DavidAP is shown with options for 'Invite to Play' and 'Set as Partner'. A chat window at the bottom right shows messages from joe2020 and Nicholas regarding players needed at a table.

Click on the person you want to play with. You will then see their details on the right of the screen, "click invite To Play"

The screenshot shows the profile page for Queenie Cole. The 'Invite to Play' and 'Set as Partner' buttons are circled in blue. The profile includes a card image, system settings (Basic ACOL, Simple SAYC), PPI: n/a, Member Bds: 132822, and Social Bds: 7045. A chat window at the bottom right shows a message from DavidAP: '09:16 Online Server -> Request rejected - This room does not support InviteAsPartner' and '09:16 Online Server -> Waiting 60 seconds for Queenie Cole to accept or decline your invitation'.

Your partner will have to accept your invitation, providing they do when you start a table, they will automatically join you at the table. It will say in the chat that they have accepted your invite.

Set as Partner.

I have never used this feature on BCL so if the following is incorrect please let us know so we can correct it.
