

Dear Members

Guess who? – 1945

My mother used to send me to school looking perfectly turned out and I always came home with one plait undone, the ribbon lost looking an absolute mess!!!

As we approach the 8th May
We were supposed to celebrate VE day
Seventy five years have now long gone
But another war is yet to be won

Together we will beat this virus
Life will return without all this fuss
It will take time and we need to stay strong
We will adhere to the easement however long

So what will Boris tell us from the helm
There will be a strategy but don't be overwhelmed
We will be the last to get the green light to go
But by then our confidence will be high don't you know

May I wish you all a very memorable Mayday bank holiday weekend. It is so strange to have a bank holiday on a Friday, other than Good Friday of course. Just remember that with each week that passes we will be nearer our green light.

And many thanks to Mike Thacker for (1) the Blockbuster quiz set out below and (2) his offer of help and his 'easy to understand' instructions to play bridge on line I believe Mike has had many responses to his email inviting any members wanting to play on line to contact him. He is now trying to organise Team events for all those registered with BBO to compete against one another. So, if you have not dipped your toe into this experience yet and have a computer/laptop why not go onto www.youtube.com and put Adam Wiseberg BBO in the search box and he will guide you through the process of registering on BBO and how to play.
