19th April 2026 at Kingston Seymour village hall.

The Kingston Seymour and Clevedon & Portishead Bridge Clubs are collaborating to run a Swiss Pairs event in aid of charity.

Play will start at 1pm, starting with four six board rounds. There will then be a break for an excellent tea for those who chose it and then three more six board rounds, finishing at about 6.30pm.

Entry fee is £7 per head. An excellent tea will be available at £8 per head.

The Tournament Director will be Andy Ridgers.

Any surplus from the event will be donated to the Guide Dogs for the Blind Association.

Details of the event and the online entry form can be found on both the Kingston Seymour and Clevedon & Portishead Bridge Clubs' web sites.

‘A splendid time is guaranteed for all!’
