

2022 – SIGNALS - ONLINE

Signals. If you are not using proper signals you are playing the game blindfolded – not the best way to play the game.

The type of information defenders want to give each other through the cards they play falls into four basic categories.

1. How to tell partner your attitude toward a specific suit — whether partner should continue to play that suit. 🙌🙌🙌 or 🙋🙋🙋🙋.
2. You wish to tell partner about your distribution. How many cards you have in a suit. This allows partner to give you a ruff or hold up a critical card, thus putting the opponents down in an ice cold contract.
3. Or, you might want to tell partner which suit you would prefer to have played, when partner next gets the opportunity to lead.
4. Partner leads an ace from ace-king setting up dummy's queen-jack. Learn how to tell partner the suit to switch to as soon as the ace is played.

You will learn: Attitude, Count and Suit Preference Signals.

You will have the opportunity to practice your signals playing numerous defensive hands.
A partner is not required.
