Lady Milne Trials

It was decided unanimously that these should be played over one week end only and it would be the second weekend 24/25/26 November starting Friday night at 7 pm playing 2 sets Saturday playing four sets starting 10 am and Sunday starting at 10 am playing four sets. Playing 16 board matches
Proposed by Michael Coffey and seconded by Ruth Connolly

Nuala Mooney was to inform the players and Norman Lacey of the format and dates and ask Norman to deal the boards if possible.

Decision was made about the reserve pair for the Interprovincials. Nuala was asked to inform Dean and William that they were to be the first reserve pair and if necessary Zrinka and Pat second reserve if William was unable to return on time.
Harold and Michael were conflicted. Agreed unanimously.

It was agreed that Harold would email Sandie and thank her for the superb way in which she ran the trials.

John Murchan congratulated and thanked Nuala for all the hard work she has done to get the Interprovincials arranged. He suggested this should be minuted.
Harold proposed and Ruth Connolly seconded.

No other business
