Merry Christmas & Happy New Year from the Club Trustees

Jack Hammond Trophy

Congratulations to Lynne Cumberpatch, this year's winner.

The handicapped competition ran from 7th September to 30th November. Your best six scores counted and those had to be gained with at least two partners.

Bridge in the Coming Weeks

A better title might be “the best laid schemes o' mice an' men” as our planning is being done under the shadow of a potential Plan C being introduced. However, for the time being the following face-to-face drives are planned over the next couple of weeks:

22 Dec – Wednesday evening – No drive
24 Dec – Friday evening – No drive
27 Dec – Monday afternoon – Drive
28 Dec – Tuesday afternoon – Drive
29 Dec – Wednesday evening – Party drive
31 Dec – Friday evening – No drive
3 Jan – Monday afternoon – Drive
4 Jan – Tuesday afternoon – Drive
5 Jan – Wednesday evening – Drive
7 Jan – Friday evening – Drive

For all of the above drives, you can turn up on your own and a partner will be guaranteed.

Our BBO tournaments on Tuesdays and Saturdays continue as usual.

Graham Brindley's sessions are currently on a break. His afternoon supervised play sessions will start up again on Wednesday 12 January, and his improvers' classes resume on Thursday 13 January.

Andrew Scott's new series of classes for beginners will start on Monday 10 January. Tell your friends!

We endeavour to keep the club's web site calendar up-to-date and will email you if a Plan C is brought into force to let you know of any changes.

Online Bridge

At their recent meeting, the Trustees reconfirmed their commitment to having an online presence for bridge. Both our Tuesday and Saturday evening tournaments on BBO will continue throughout 2022 so long as there is a continued demand for them.

Our Tuesday tournaments will continue to be members only, while the Saturdays are also open to players in the County.

If you play in a Tuesday tournament next year, you will automatically be billed for membership via our cashless system. You pay by making a bank transfer to our NEW BANK ACCOUNT (please, no other!):
