Ways to enjoy Bridge

Every 'bridgy' loves taking tricks, as our Sunday pm juniors do (left with tutor Diane Coe) and as you may do online (at all hours) versus opponents in the UK or abroad. You may test your problem-solving skills at 'tough' events locally or up to international level. For uni students the hook may be bidding gadgets. But whether you prefer, duplicate, point-a-board or Swiss Teams do say, "Thank you, partner." And at year end add, "Happy New Year!" — David Bygott

Sunday afternoon Juniors Club...

Summertown Church Hall,
Banbury Road, Oxford,
2.30 – 4.30 pm.
"Bridge benefits concentration,
memory, arithmetic,
reasoning and judgement," says
chief organiser Holly Kilpatrick,
"and it's fun!"

Well done, OBA bridge clubs

Several OBA clubs ran events in aid of Children in Need (see newsletter 28). Summertown BC raised £910 in all, aided by Maison Francaise who kindly waived their rent for this event.

Sara Alden both ran a raffle and baked a cake as a prize. Here Sara (right) is presenting the cake to delighted winner Sue Reynolds.

Chester Cup 2014-15

In our Chester Cup comp the early joint leaders are Team Cherrett and Team Dixon. To see who this cup is named after, check our Aug 2010 newsletter, issue 10. It's in our OBA online newsletters menu.

Good news

OBA captain Alan Wilson must be pleased with our recent inter-county league wins. After a slow start to the season our A team lies second in the Dawes, our B and C teams top the Porter and Markham. A clean sweep in view...? The penultimate 14/15 match on Feb 8 against Leicestershire looks tasty. The crunch game rates to be the head-to-head in the very last match vs Warwickshire. In the meantime, for match reports to date, visit...

Nick or Nicholas?

At our 2014-15 Swiss Pairs (TD: Stephen Brown) Nick Smith & Alan Wilson were chased by 3 pairs who play at Wallingford BC, Geoff Nicholas & Debbie Roberts, Jo Murray & Richard Ford and Adrian Lambe & Norman Gascoyne. In a thrilling climax it took the final board to decide the winners. The tale gets told on 1 Jan 2015 in Nick's column of the Oxford Times. (If the OxT proves a sell-out, you can see the outcome at the foot of this page.)

Talking point: your views?

Our OBA team again didn't survive the Tollemache quali stage. It's OK for a tiny county to finish 3/8 in a tough event, yet we have pairs good enough to go to the Finals. The recurring problem, it's been said, is that over the qualifying w/e one pair or other dips below form. So not try next year? Instead, look to youth? Save the £400 Tollemache fee and use it to send some juniors to a weekend training camp?

In your Ed's opinion the OBA should foster bridge at all levels where its budget allows. Yes to juniors' camps, but also yes to supporting regular 'tough' sessions to give our stronger pairs greater consistency under pressure. What do you think?

Please send us your views.

1	Nick Smith & Alan Wilson	90
2	Adrian Lambe & Norman Gascoyne	87
3	Geoff Nicholas & Debbie Roberts	79
4	Jo Murray & Richard Ford	77

That hand again...

In issue 28 you had to defend as South after N's opening lead of ♥8 against 3NT. Get it right (as Robert Procter & Michael Robinson's team did) and you may win the tournament!

West dealt and, say, bid 1NT (12-14) with the brief auction going: 1NT – 2♣; 2♦ – 3NT.

♠ AJT
♥ 84
♦ T83		♠ K986
♣ 97652		♥ T72
♠ Q4		♦ K962
♥ QJ6		♣ AK
♦ A74
♣ QJT43	♠ 7532
	♥ AK953
	♦ QJ5
	♣ 8

Declarer's 2♦ response to Stayman denied a 4-card major. Trusting N to hold a doubleton, S can duck at trick 1. As soon as N or S wins a trick in spades or diamonds, the defence can take 4 heart tricks. (Yet, on the day, most declarers made 9 tricks.)

What's the EBU good for?

Some players ask: why an EBU?. Weren't the laws of the game fixed 50 years ago? Well, as elsewhere in the world, the old ways are reviewed to meet the needs of new generations. Plus the EBU sells bridge kit at prices to keep other suppliers on their toes; it trains club directors and runs events, including sim pairs; and it manages a national grading scheme. It also supports bridge classes in schools and coaches our strongest players to pit themselves against other nations. And...it needs the support of its members to keep doing all of this.

Well done to...

...a keen non-expert pair, Howard Arnes & Ursula Bowler. They didn't just gather moss after their sterling efforts in the EBU Brighton Congress but scored 59.17 % in the Mixed at the recent EBU Congress in Montenegro which drove them to a fine 6/32 in a 57% field.

Ambassadors abroad

In the recent Channel Trophy in Lille our England under-25s (OBA's James Paul & Alex Roberts on board) finished a close third out of four, while our under-25 women (including OBA's Laura Covill) were pipped by 1 VP. Our under-20s stayed in touch to the end, helped by Oxon's Freddie Illingworth (b. 1995) who was the EBU's young player of the year in 2012. Details via: <http://www.ebu.co.uk/> .

OBA newsletter editor

At the last OBA management Committee meeting it fell to your Editor to mark the passing of Malcolm Simpson (1937-2014) life member of Abingdon BC, member of Wantage and Wallingford, and founding editor of Oxfordshire Bridge.

Abingdon's website carries a moving tribute by Malcolm's long-time partner and friend, Clive Keep: "always extremely courteous at the table, often complimenting the opposition on their defence or declarer play."

The OBA online archive still offers Malcolm's earliest digitised newsletters.

An old clipping

This fine defence, vintage 1995 (rotated) is courtesy of Eric Bowtell, Oxford Times predecessor of columnist Nick Smith (see p. 2). Dealer: S

W	N	E	S

What do you think England star Tony Forrester led from these West cards against 2♦?

On the day, declarer went off by 3 tricks after Forrester (to quote the reporter) "led a sneaky ♣Q, which held the first trick, then switched to ♠8."

The 1995 clipping also reported how "The Oxford Club Tournament Director, Jeffrey Luck, again brought enjoyment to the field competing for the Thompson Shield Individual Tournament for which a very difficult movement is essential."

This reminded your Ed how enjoyable it was to play against Jeffrey's widow, Patsy Luck, her kind face lit by twinkling eyes as she set about taking yet another top off me. Since autumn, alas, no more.

A key committee vacancy

The current OBA Secretary, Sandra Nicholson, will be standing down at next June's AGM after 6 years in post. Could you be the OBA member to take her place? Perhaps if you knew what was involved, in addition to note-taking?

Sandra will happily give you her take on the fun bits and the qualities sought, additional to the obvious organisational/admin skills. Or you can wait to read more in the next OBA newsletter, issue 30.

Bringing folk together

At very short notice, four bridge players, each from a different background, formed a team to play in the 1987 Reisinger Board-a-Match Teams in the USA: Zia Mahmood from Pakistan; Jaggy Shivdasani, a CPA from Bombay; Ron Smith, an options trader from Chicago; Billy Cohen, a Canadian businessman from Santa Ana CA.

"It's good to show how bridge can bring together people from different backgrounds," said Zia. "It shows a special magic about the game of bridge."

The scratch team went on to win and Patrick Jourdain, doyen of Welsh bridge, there to edit a bulletin and familiar to many OBA members through his Telegraph columns, wrote a poem. "May not seem PC now," he told your Ed, "back then it was accepted as it was intended."

A Fair Wind

by Patrick Jourdain

At America's major tournament,
Held in Anaheim's Hilton Hotel,
The winners of the Reisinger
Had a touching tale to tell.

Bridge brings together nations,
Races, colors and creeds.
Hear the make-up of the champions.
(who were nowhere near the top seeds).

A friend said to Zia, the captain:
"Tell us how this was done."
He replied: "All the Gods were behind us,
For this is the team that has won:

A Pakistani Muslim,
An Indian Hindu,
A black American Christian,
And a white Canadian Jew!"

Extra... Extra... read all about it...

At the Seniors' trials 19-21 December to decide who might play for England in the 2015 Teltscher Trophy Robert Procter & Michael Robinson's team (Bob Holder, Phil Thornton) faced other hopefuls and a host of stars such as Tony Forrester, Paul Hackett, Sally Brock, Nicola Smith, Rob Sheehan, Brian Senior... yet were leading as the tenth and final session began, only to be nudged aside by the team with Forrester. "Hard luck," says your Ed, "but what a superb try! Surely... next time?"

Stop press... Stop press... Stop press...

Watch out for extra bridge opportunities available soon at venues in the north of our county.

An extra quiz...

Issue 29, Extra Quiz p. 4

In the OBA's NE border region, handy for a trip to Waddesdon Manor or Bicester Shopping Village, easy to spot, easy to park, is an Italian restaurant (good cooking and service with style) so confident they put the Oxford Times review on their website.
