Joan Schneider Player of the Year Award

(most master points in club play)

Joan Schneider began playing at the club in the early 1970's. She was mentored by Nels Borland and, it wasn't long before she had established herself at the table. She was a fierce competitor who enjoyed the give and flow of the game. She developed a strong partnership with Pam Dahl in the 1980's. She had a great sense of humour and her laugh would fill the bridge room.

Jill Wellman Highest % Game in Open Play

Jill Wellman Jill Wellman had played social bridge for many years but she didn't begin playing duplicate bridge until she was in her early 50's. Still, she considered bridge to be a social game and visiting with her friends was the most important part. Her favourite partners were Ken Gee, Barry Harper, Dan Mathieson and Gary Johannsson. She continued playing at the club until well into her early 80's, when she moved into an assisted living facility. The first thing she did there, was set up weekly bridge games. She continued directing and playing in these games until her passing at 96

Don Larmour Monday Afternoon

Don Larmour was an engineer who took up duplicate bridge later in life. His favourite partner was his wife Jean. While the game intrigued him, the social aspect of bridge was more important.

Art Dahl Monday Afternoon Open Pairs

Art Dahl was president of Ready Travel and one of the top players at our club from the mid 1960's to mid 1980's. He was very hard to defend against because it was difficult to figure out what he held. But he was probably more famous for his rubber bridge money games on a Friday or Saturday night. Many of the club players of the day, including Dick Anderson, Gil Lafreniere, etc would partake of this money bridge game, with Nels Borland cooking up a storm in the kitchen. Most would sit in and lose their money to Art.

Pat Fyfe Friday Afternoon

IN THE OLDEN Days, the late 60's, 70's and 80's, the Regina Bridge Club did not have very many retired bridge players. So, the Monday afternoon game, while an open game, was generally considered a "ladies game". However, some of the younger men would occasionally take Monday Afternoon off work to enjoy an afternoon of bridge. Now, Pat Fyfe only played on Monday afternoon and not that frequently. When she passed away, her friends donated a trophy in her name and that became the Friday Afternoon Club Championship

Guy Jensen Friday Aft Stratified Pairs

Guy Jensen owned a vacuum cleaner sales business and, as a salesman, he was very outgoing. Guy loved the game of bridge, especially its social aspect. He played at the club during the 1970's and 80's. His favourite partner was Nels Borland.

Sherry Brooks Board-a-Match

Sherry Brooks was one of the owners of Bi-Rite Drugs and one of the true gentlemen. With the opening of Bi-rite Drugs in the mid 1960's, his time was taken up with work and his playing time "suffered". Some of his favourite bridge partners, from that time, were his wife Sherrill, Art d'Entremont and Nelson Sunshine. His son, Frazer, now occasionally plays at the club
