DIRECTORS CORNER

Be Kind to Your Partner and Your Opponents

Players often feel uncomfortable when a player is critical or rude to their partner or an opponent but are hesitant to call the director. This behaviour falls under the clubs Zero Tolerance Policy.

ZERO TOLERANCE POLICY

The Board of Directors of the Regina Duplicate Bridge Club has adopted the following Zero Tolerance Policy which is based on the ACBL policy.

The Board of Directors and Management of the Regina Duplicate Bridge Club are committed to improving acceptable behavior at all club-sponsored events.

The ultimate purpose of the Z-T Policy is to create and maintain a pleasant atmosphere in our Club. We are attempting to eliminate unacceptable behavior in order to make the game of bridge more enjoyable for all. Below are some examples of commendable behavior which, while not required, will significantly contribute to the improved atmosphere:

- Being a good “host” or “guest” at the table.
- Greeting others in a friendly manner.
- Praising the bidding and/or play of the opponents.
- Having two clearly completed convention cards readily available to the opponents. (This one is a regulation, not just a nicety.)

The following kinds of behavior will not be tolerated:

- Badgering, rudeness, insinuations, intimidation, profanity, threats, or violence.
- Negative comments concerning opponents’ or partner’s play or bidding.
- Constant and gratuitous lessons and analyses at the table.
- Loud and disrupting arguing with a director’s ruling.

If a player at the table behaves in an unacceptable manner the director should be called immediately. Annoying behavior, embarrassing remarks, or any other conduct which might interfere with the enjoyment of the game is specifically prohibited by Law 74A. Law 91A gives the director the authority to assess disciplinary penalties.

At the start of each game the director may make an announcement that there will be ZERO TOLERANCE for unacceptable behavior. Whether or not this is done, it is understood that the policy is still in effect. It is requested that the director be called whenever behavior is not consistent with the guidelines outlined above.

The director, when called, shall make an assessment of the situation and determine whether it appropriate to impose a disciplinary penalty. The director's decision is final.
