

PUTTING US OUT THERE!

After the last committee meeting it was decided that we would make a push to advertise the club within the community and thanks to Lesley Waller, we have managed to get press releases in two newspapers – the Salisbury Journal, and the Salisbury and Avon Gazette. Believe it or not, these started life as two identical items. Oh well! Mustn't grumble. There may be more to come too! Thanks again Lesley.

Be a Chorister For A Day

BE A Chorister For A Day, a music event that traditionally marks the start of the chorister recruitment season, returns to Salisbury Cathedral on Saturday, October 7, offering an afternoon of fun and singing for girls and boys (school years 3 and 4) who are interested in joining the Cathedral Choir.

As well as meeting current choristers and taking part in lively and friendly Evenson rehearsals conducted by the cathedral's director of music, David Halls, the children to the cathedral and school are given high tea in the atmospheric undercroft in the Bishop's Palace.

There's time for play on the school lawn too – a chance to let off steam before taking part in a special Evenson with the cathedral choristers.

David Halls, director of music said: "This is a great opportunity to learn about the cathedral and what being a chorister entails. We are very lucky here because we have boys choir and a girls choir."
