

Fun and Games! Christmas '25

This year featured much more fun elements.

"This game, anyone having the ace of spades, MUST bid four spades." Remind me next year, to double on principle!

As for the light rubber ball which was thrown around the room periodically with the cry of "Deuce Ball" and ended up in Bernadetta's hands .... Well, a prize was involved. Nuff said!

Another amusing twist – this round all aces are LOW. Found myself in the bizarre situation, of throwing away my aces! (Well, ace, singular) Knowing whether to open or not, was also a bit problematic.

The perpetrator of all the mayhem, looking very pleased with herself!

As per usual, many of you helped to set the Christmassy mood, with an interesting array of jumpers ... or other things.

Sneaky! Do you see that slightly guilty look? Who started the nibbles before we were invited to then?

Top gear!

Hmm!
Nothing quite like carrying around some mistletoe – just in case!

Tree!

Winners!

John Carlisle and Bob Roquette – both managed nil points! And the wooden spoon went to Annie Bennett.

A big thank you to all those who helped and to Katy for organizing and cooking! Her sausage rolls disappeared really quickly. See you all next year!
