

Registration for the Suffolk Café Bridge event in association with Victor Lesk on August 21st in Bury St Edmunds town centre is now open. This event is also raising funds for 'St Nicholas Hospice Care' charity and the event will run between 10.15 and 15.45. The venues this year include Procopios Pantry; Mowgli Street Food; Damson & Wilde; Baytree Café; Sekura; The One Bull Hotel; Midgar Coffee; The Edmundo Lounge; Abbeygate Cinema; The Apex; The Lounge & Garden; & Prezzo.

This promises to be a fun day playing relaxed Bridge in a social setting in Cafés and Restaurants in the town centre, moving between them after each round following a personalized movement card. A light lunch is included in the entrance fee of £25/head, of which St Nicholas Hospice Care will receive £10. There will be prizes for the first three pairs.

Please enter your details below to register. Note that we need as many players as possible with a Smartphone who are willing to download and use the free 'BriAn Bridge Client' App to enter the scores as North. Please tick the appropriate box on the registration page.

Details on how to download this App; the bespoke lunch menus; and your starting Restaurant/Café will be emailed to you nearer the time, with an opportunity to state your preferred venue for lunch and menu selection, which we will do our best to accommodate. What is Café Bridge? Click item in the menu to find out more.

There will be a further prize draw for any Café Bridge players who correctly guess the missing word in the image above and email their answer to René at cafe\_bridge@suffolkbridge.co.uk
