

Andrew Robson is widely regarded as one of the finest bridge teachers, players and writers in the world today - and his Master Classes have proved an inspiration for thousands of players around the country. Following the success of previous visits, he is returning to present his tenth Master Class at Lavenham.

Currently our club nights are running on BBO

Clare Bridge Club meets every Monday evening at the Old School Hall (the building on the right in the photograph above) in Clare -

7.00pm for 7.15pm start. It prides itself on being a friendly club, playing duplicate bridge in comfortable surroundings, with players of all standards - and welcomes visitors and prospective members. For more
