

ALEXANDER MARTIN..... Obituary

Major Alexander J. Martin died on 13th September 2001. He returned from Singapore after the war and was a member of Wimbledon Bridge Club and also played occasionally at Richmond. He played regularly with John Ritchie and prior to the late 1980s had played often at the Weybridge Club, which no longer exists. In teams events, he had on occasions played with another past president Don King, and his wife Kay.

Alexander was President of Surrey CBA in 1987, and was also a Surrey county tournament director.