

KATH COWARD Obituary

Kath Coward was born in 1909 and died in 2012/13. She celebrated her 100th birthday on 21st July 2009 at her home in Epsom, surrounded by family and friends.

Kath served on the Surrey CBA committee for 25 years, was the Surrey President in 1973 and was a recipient of the EBU's Dimmie Fleming Award in 1990.

She was the last proprietor of the Mayfield Bridge Club before it became a members' club 25 years ago, and served on the committee there for many years.

She was a Life Master, and won many trophies at Club, County and National level.