

PHIL GARNER ..... Obituary

Phil Garner died suddenly at the beginning of 2006, at the early age of 59, while starting to play a game of tennis. We send our sincere condolences to his wife Jenny.

Phil had been an influential member of Farnham Bridge Club for some 25 years, serving as both Chairman and Vice-Chairman on several occasions. His cheerful personality and infectious humour were always in evidence at the bridge table and he will be sorely missed by all.

He played successfully in many county and national competitions. At the time of his death, he was the holder of the SCBA Mens Pairs trophy, together with his partner Tim Lighting, a fellow member of Farnham Bridge Club and also his next door neighbour.
