Kim Howard, Editor

Larry and I recently returned from a wonderful road trip to Canada. Along the way, we had the opportunity to play in local bridge clubs in Lexington, Kentucky and Toronto. If you are travelling this summer, I recommend finding a club along your route. If they are doing something you like, bring us back the idea.

It seems there is some confusion about which Saturday we have Eight is Enough and which Sunday we have the 4 X 4 Swiss Teams. Eight is Enough is scheduled the first Saturday of the month and 4 X 4 is on the last Sunday of the month. The only time this is changed is if we have a tournament falling on one of those days. If the tournament is on the first weekend of the month, Eight is Enough is changed to the second Saturday. If a tournament is on the last weekend of the month, the 4 X 4 is changed to the next to last Sunday.

Sometime this month we will be moving our domain name, www.verobridge.com to the Bridgewebs VBBC. Until then we have a hot link at the top center of the current web-site that takes you to the new site. All of the feedback we have received

June has been that kind of a month, both for the club, and my game. Not much happening. I was thinking that I might have to use this article to tell a couple of jokes, but the only good jokes I know are either too racy for the older men in the club, or they involve the other President who is affecting our lives. As I'm writing this, the first hurricane of the season, (Alex) is about to come ashore in Mexico. Let's hope that Vero Beach, and the bridge club have a good no-hurricane year. We sure do need a little rain though. I'm going to stop now, before I really do tell some jokes.

Happy Bridge, Merle Hauser

FYI!!!!!!

We would like everyone to please take precautions. Please just take a moment, double check, and make sure you LOCK your vehicles and remove all valuables from view, place valuable items in the trunk of your car. There have been several reports of break-ins in the area.

BRIDGE BUCKS!!!!

Purchase your BRIDGE BUCKS and skip the long lines... If you have a bridge bucks card you can go straight to the touch screen and do it by yourself without the wait.

Convention Cards

A very good series of 24 one-page articles on the convention card concludes this month in the ACBL Bridge Bulletin. Some of you may have skipped this series; after all, you have played bridge for a long time and filled out many convention cards. Still there is a lot to learn from this series and if you read only one of the articles, then read the July article.

A couple choice reminders follow here:

- The two identical convention cards of your partnership are there for your opponent's convenience, keep them on the table for them.

Refrain from consulting your card during the auction and play; the laws prohibit written memory aids. Perhaps we should cut new players some slack but most of us are not exactly new to the game, are we.

My Partner Forgot to Alert

Your partner failed to alert. Now what? Well, for starters, show no outward sign that anything has gone astray. At least he did not provide a wrong explanation. The alert procedure, much like the convention card, is for the benefit of your opponents. Make the assumption, regardless of the bidding sequence, that partner knows the exact meaning of your bid (also do this even if he did provide a wrong explanation) and simply forgot to alert or that you did not hear the alert. Take partner's bid and subsequent bids at face value according to your methods. Continue to bid your hand as your agreements would suggest. If partner simply forgot to alert, you may well survive. If partner forgot your agreement, you may well find yourself in a ridiculous contract. If you become the declaring side, notify the opponents of the failure to alert prior to the opening lead. If you are defending, then you will have to wait until the conclusion of the play. Don't hesitate to call the director at those same times; she may well be needed to help assure fairness. Both pairs should be seeking a fair outcome. Maintain a quiet demeanor; it will help your reputation and the rest of your session.

Basic Bidding Review Schedule

7/7 Opening Preempts & Responses

7/14 Bidding over Opponent's Preempts

7/21 Slam Conventions, Blackwood & Gerber

7/28 Opening NT Bids & Basic Responses

8/4 Stayman over NT Openings

Class is Wednesday morning from 9:30 to 11:30. No reservation or partner is necessary. Cost is $10 per session.

Monitored Play Classes

Play and review hands with an instructor. The pace is leisurely and the fun is guaranteed. This series of single-session classes includes a book. Attend one or all, ten dollars per class (the first time you take a class in any series will cost an extra $5 for the book). No partner or reservation is necessary. These sessions are suitable for beginners or anyone in need of guided practice on bread and butter hands.

Friday Student Game

A 0-20 bridge game for beginning players is held each Friday. This game is an ideal way to be re-introduced to the fascinating game of bridge or those players interested in trying a duplicate-style game. The session begins at 9am with a lesson taught by an ACBL certified teacher on basic bidding followed by bridge play which lasts until 12:00. Players may ask the teacher for help with bidding or use notes, bridge books, etc. Fee is $6/$7.

From Bridge Coordinator's Desk

on the new site has been extremely positive. If you have a suggestion for an addition or improvement to the new site, please let us know. It is a work in progress. In addition to having many new features, it is less expensive than our previous web host and bridge results host.

Back-to-School shoes needed

The Homeless Family Center is in need of donations for purchasing shoes for the children for the beginning of the school year which starts in August. Gift certificates from Wal-Mart would be appreciated. If fifty of us could donate $10 each, that would buy a lot of shoes and sneakers for these deserving children.

Please drop off your donations to Kim before the end of July. A local church is providing funds to purchase back-to-school clothes for all the children.

Also, the HFC really appreciates all the donations that you have been leaving at the club. Especially useful are the personal care products that our members collect from hotels and cruise ships when they are traveling.

Thank you for your past and future support of our club's official charity

Volunteer of the Month

Gini Hauser is our volunteer of the month. Gini works hard at getting snacks out in time for our breaks, and we all know the results of her delicious efforts in the kitchen.

Gini was born in Appleton, Wisconsin and lived in Beloit, Wisconsin for approximately 35 years until moving to Vero Beach.

Gini met her husband Merle (our president of the Board of Governors) when she was attending St. Mary's Nursing School and Merle was a student at Marquette University. While Gini worked as a RN her entire life she has balanced her career and her family. The mother of four children, Gini's three girls have followed in their mother's footsteps. Susan and Karen are both RNs and Teresa is an administrative assistant to a surgeon. Her son Richard followed in his father's footsteps and is a mechanical engineer. Gini always played bridge but it wasn't until she moved to Vero that she played duplicate. Lucky for us Gini's neighbors were Pat Martin and Winnie Evans. They mentored, encouraged and guided Gini through the duplicate world to becoming a Life Master.

Thanks Gini for all you do!!
