Bridge Safari Tues 30th April 2019

What is it?

It is a social event where 96 keen bridge players progress through various venues, playing a great game of bridge and enjoying some pleasant surroundings – and a super two-course lunch in one of them. We know we have some of the loveliest pubs and restaurants in the country and we want to show them off whilst we have fun, socialise, play bridge and have a lovely meal out.

Will there be lions?

Yes, indeed! Starting at 11am, you will travel around six of the loveliest pubs and venues that flank our end of the Garden City, so you'd need a car, a partner, and, if you like, you could travel as a foursome. Along the way, you'd visit The Sun (Lemsford), The (iconic) Crooked Chimney, The Auberge du Lac, Brocket Hall, the Waggoners and, yes you got it. . . The Red Lion on the edge of Sherrardspark Woods.

A G & T at sundown?

We can even promise that! And, if you fancy a drink along the way, you can of course partake at any of the hostelrys we visit. It is just a lovely day out, with friends and, of course, the competitive, duplicate bridge. This year, we will finish the event at the Barn Theatre, Handside Lane where the bar will be open and we will serve tea, home-baked cakes and prizes at the end to celebrate a lovely spring day out.

So there are trophies?

Yes, indeed. Each N and S winners will receive £50 each, and so will each of the E W winners. There are further prizes of meal vouchers at local eateries, bottles of spirits and more besides.

Tempted to tangle?

We hope so! Entry to the day is £25 per person, which covers all the above and the only extras will be any drinks you wish to purchase along the way. Full details are on our website, <http://www.bridgewebs.com/welwyngardencity/> together with a downloadable application form.

On for the Big Game Drive?

Our drive is to raise £1000 for the Isabel Hospice. Simple as that, but we thought we'd have a lot of fun on the way. We will also hold a big prize raffle to raise a further £3000, if we can. Entry is open to our members only until Feb 14th and then we will open it out to all. Entries close as soon as the event is full. Don't miss out!
