

TADSS

(Think And Do Something Sensible)

Teachers Andrew Merrison & The TADSS Team

Dates: 10:00 – 12:00, Tuesdays

Cost: £8 per session (pay as you attend)

Using carefully selected hands from a previous session (usually Thursday evening's "Improvers Plus"), students will bid, play and discuss multiple aspects of 4 deals, with a tutor at the table acting as a Socratic guide – constantly encouraging them to: Think And Do Something Sensible. Wherever possible, hands are chosen to potentially allow for each participant to be declarer.

After 4 boards and a coffee break, the tutors move on to a different table and the process is repeated, thereby allowing students to experience two styles of tutelage per session.

Tutors are armed with the relevant travellers from the play so that results can be compared. (And of course, if they can remember their own bidding and play, anyone who has already played the hands should gain additional insights!)

NB:

While we aim to be able to always guarantee accommodating 3 tables (12 students), more usually we are able to accommodate 4 tables (16) students.

HOWEVER. In the unlikely event that too many people show up, there will be overspill capacity in the other room at 'Assisted Play'.
